V Technical Textiles, Inc. Welcomes Tanya Hasseler to our Sales Team!!!

Here We Grow Again!!

NEWARK, NEW YORK, June 10-V Technical Textiles, Inc. is proud to welcome Tanya Hasseler as the newest member of our Team! Tanya will be an Account Manager in our Sales Department. Tanya grew up in Marion, New York, graduating from Marion Jr./Sr. High School, studied Criminal Justice at SUNY at Canton, and worked for 15+ years in the hospitality industry , graduating from Finger Lakes Community College with an AAS in Hospitality and Tourism Management, with an emphasis in Event Management.

During the past five years, Tanya has been an Economic Development Specialist for Wayne County Development and Planning Department , Wayne County Industrial Development Agency, and Wayne County Economic Development Council. During her tenure there, she completed all coursework required for International Economic Developer Certification (CEcD), a designation shared by only 1,100 people worldwide.

Tanya lives in Newark with her husband Steve and two daughters Sophia 15 and Sienna 12, along with two family rescue dogs, Gus and Violet. Tanya also co-founded and co-manages the local chapter of Blessings in a Backpack, a program that sends home food with 300+ Newark school children each week whose families are facing economic hardship. We're looking forward to working with you, Tanya!!
